A WHITMAN
COMIC

I TAWT I TAW
A PUDDY TAT!™

Tweety certainly did! And that's where all the fun comes in as Sylvester is about to pounce on your funny bone!

TWEETY AND SYLVESTER® A WHITMAN COMIC

"Chirp, twitter, peep, peep!" Bertie Bird sang one bright morning from a branch outside his nest in Apple Tree Lane. "Ah, me," he sighed, "I can't think of a single thing that could possibly go wrong on such a beautiful day as..."

KATHUMPI! Just as Bertie was in the middle of his ballad, something smacked into him from behind and sent him toppling from his perch.

With wildly fluttering wings and fearfully pounding heart, he swooped to the nearest branch and craned his neck to see what had struck him.

"Haw, haw, haw!" a large black bird above him laughed rudely. "That'll teach you to watch where I'm going the next time."

"Say," Bertie said indignantly, "just who do you think you are, you big oaf?"

"I'm Sassy Starling," the bird replied.

"Well, you certainly fit your name, Sassy," Bertie twittered. "I have a good mind to fly up there and knock your block off."

"Ha!" Sassy jeered. "You're a phony-baloney, like everyone else—sparrows, bluejays, and crows included. You'd better fly away now and find a new home, because I'm taking yours over."

"You wouldn't dare take my home if I were bigger," Bertie stormed.

"When you get bigger, you can come back and scare me away," Sassy scoffed. "Now shoo! Scat!"

Bertie flew off, trying to think of some way to frighten Sassy away. A few minutes later, he spied Blackie, the crow.

"Hey, Blackie," he called, fluttering down by the big bird. "Is it true that you're a phony-baloney? Sassy Starling says that you are."

"What?" Blackie cried. "Where is he? I'll fix him. Nobody can call me a phony-baloney and get away with it."

"I'll show you where he is," Bertie promised, "when the time comes. Right now, I'm planning a way to really scare him."

Bertie lowered his voice and whispered his plan into Blackie's ear.

"Say, that's a great idea," Blackie chuckled in agreement. "Let's go."

A few minutes later, Bertie and Blackie arrived back at Apple Tree Lane. They carefully hid behind the trunk of a tree near to Bertie's nest.

"Hey, Sassy," Bertie called.

"Who's that?" Sassy replied, looking around, trying to locate the voice.

"It's me, Bertie Bird," Bertie answered. "You told me to come back and scare you off when I got bigger, so here I am. I've grown into a great big, black crow."

"Haw, haw, haw!" Sassy laughed. "That's a good one. I'll believe it when I see it."

"Okay," Bertie chirped. "Here I come." He turned and whispered to Blackie, "Do your stuff now, Blackie."

"Caw! Caw!" Blackie cried, flying from behind the tree, straight at Sassy Starling.

"Yipe!" Sassy sputtered in alarm. "You have grown into a crow, and you're much too big for me! Good-by-yi-yi!"

Sassy flew off amidst a flutter of wings. Blackie was close behind him. Bertie watched them until they were out of sight.

"Well," he chirped cheerfully, "I won't be bothered with him again. My plan for getting him away from here worked fine, and now I really have something to crow about!"
